

Anticipated Project Timeline

Water providers plan decades in advance to ensure future generations have the water they need. It's critical to advance the LPP to protect southern Utah's economy, environment and quality of life.