

Scarecrow Walk & Haunted Canyon

Create and display your scarecrow at the 6th annual Scarecrow Walk and haunted canyon event at Red Hills Desert Garden.

- Step 1: Email your participation form and a high resolution/vector logo, if applicable, to ryanw@wcwcd.org by October 2.
- Step 2: Once you've received confirmation from our team, pick-up your scarecrow stakes between September 13 and October 8 from the Washington County Water Conservancy District (WCWCD) office (533 E. Waterworks Dr., St. George).
- Step 3: Create!
- Step 4: Deliver & Install
  - Single-scarecrow participants: please deliver your scarecrow to the WCWCD office October 7-8 or October 11 between 8 am and 5 pm
  - Scarecrow scene participants: please set-up your display at Red Hills Desert Garden, in your assigned area on October 12 or before noon on October 12
- Step 5: Share your scarecrow: encourage family and friends to visit October 12-31 and share on social media using #rhdgscarecrowwalk
- Step 6: Pick-up your scarecrow from the garden on November 1. Unclaimed scarecrows will be recycled and/or saved for future use, depending on their condition.
